Flow of Sharing

1. Mother Tongue (MT) department's learning outcomes (what we want to see your child become?)
2. MT Framework (how do we do it?)
3. MT curriculum (what will my child learn?)
4. Assessment (How do I know my child learn what is taught?)
5. Every Parent a Supportive Parent (how can I help?)

DEPARTMENT'S LEARNING OUTCOMES (what we want to see your child become?)

To nurture students to be confident users and lifelong learners of the Mother Tongue language.

MT Framework (how do we do it?)

MT – Curriculum (what will my child learn?)

A refreshed Mother Tongue Languages (MTL) Curriculum in 2024

Key Features of the refreshed MT curriculum

Greater emphasis on:

- Spoken and interaction skills
- Helping students learn and use their mother tongue languages in day-to-day contexts
- promote cross-cultural literacy and understanding

Key Features of the refreshed MT curriculum

Teachers will continue to employ “multi-modal” approaches, including the meaningful use of technology, to engage and support students.

Parents are encouraged to tap on available resources to support their child’s learning of mother tongue language at home.

Assessment

(How do I know my child learn what is taught?)

- No weighted assessment
- Holistic assessment of students based on subject specific learning outcomes (LOs)
- 4 skills to be assessed throughout the year:
