

The News Busters

Volume 1, Issue 1

October 2014

Park View Primary School

Inside this issue:

- Security Alert!
- Malala – 2014 Nobel Prize Winner
- Car Accident in New Zealand
- Head Prefect Nominee

Dear Friends,

This newspaper provides you with great information, as well as stimulates your brain! We hope you like it!

The Editorial Team

The New Busters Editorial Team

Sufyan Hadi
(Editor)

Danish Irwan
(Reporter)

Charmaine Tee
(Reporter)

Jaimie Lim
(Reporter)

Security Alert!

By Danish Irwan

Have you ever wondered what life is like to be a security guard at our school? After many days of convincing, Aslecha, a security guard at Park View Primary School, finally let out her secret.

Aslecha has a habit of helping people. She is delighted to meet new people coming to our school. When asked why she liked her job, she said, “I just love to see the happy faces on pupils.” It was an unexpected surprise when she said that. Normally, people assume working as a security guard is a boring job, but Aslecha thinks differently.

One of the challenges she faces is the heavy responsibility of ensuring the safety of the pupils in school. On one occasion, one of our pupils had a terrible accident, resulting in a huge wound on his forehead. Responding with quick reflexes, Aslecha applied first aid before the pupil's parents arrived to fetch him. She definitely outwitted the Emergency Preparedness (EP) ambassadors in terms of speed!

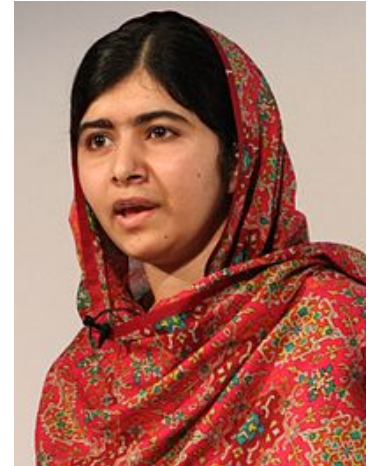

Aslecha's ten years of working at Park View Primary School has been a rewarding experience!

Malala — 2014 Nobel Prize Winner

By Sufyan Hadi

A children's rights activist, Malala Yousafzai of Pakistan, is the co-winner of the 2014 Nobel Peace Prize. "I'm proud to be the first Pakistani and the first young person to receive this award," Yousafzai told journalists in Birmingham, England.

The young woman was the youngest winner of a Nobel Prize. On her part, Malala said her win is not the end of her movement for children's education rights. "I thank my father for not clipping my wings. I also thank him for permitting me to fly."

Nobel Prize winner
Malala Yousafzai

She started campaigning for girl's education since aged 11. She blogged under a pseudonym for the BBC about her love of learning and the Taliban's oppression on Pakistan, especially its ban on educating girls.

Her father said the Nobel honour will boost the courage of Malala and enhance her capability to work for the cause of girls' education.

The journey for Malala has not been an easy one. Malala was seriously injured when a gunman shot her while she was riding home on a school bus.

Malala Yousafzai in hospital after Taliban attack.

Malala spent three months recovering in a British hospital, and currently resides in Birmingham with her family. Taliban militants still threaten to murder her if she ever returns to Pakistan.

Car Accident in New Zealand

By Charmaine Tee

Do you know that a seat belt can save your life?

Five Singapore Airlines crew members were involved in a very serious car crash on 1 October 2014 in Christchurch, New Zealand.

The four-wheel-drive and horse float

The SIA crew members' car, a rented Toyota, was travelling westward when it crashed into a four-wheel drive towing a horse float at a cross junction. A horse float is a trailer used for transporting horses.

The driver and the horse were believed to be uninjured. All five SIA crew in the Toyota were sent to Christchurch Public Hospital for treatment. Two of them, chief steward Chew Weng Wai and stewardess Vanessa Coehlo, sustained serious injuries. Chew Weng Wai is in a critical condition in the intensive care unit and Vanessa Coehlo is in a general ward. Unlike the other passengers in the car, they did not have their seat belts on.

The Canterbury Police's Serious Crash Unit went to the scene to investigate the cause of the crash.

The scene of the accident

Head Prefect Nominee

By Jaimie Lim

Lock Yi Xuan

Lock Yi Xuan from 5E is one of the three nominees for Head Prefect of Park View Primary School in 2015.

“What are you going to do if you become the Head Prefect?” I asked Yi Xuan.

JAIMIE LIM:

Please complete this Page 4 article.

When you are done, kindly email this newsletter to:

brianne@literacyplus.com.sg

Thank you.